COMMUNITY RESILIENCE INITIATIVES POLICY & ADVOCACY

GOAL:

The primary objective of this initiative is to strengthen Colorado's policy infrastructure by funding specialized policy and advocacy organizations that focus on advancing health equity in food security, housing accessibility, and mental and behavioral health. These grantees will directly engage in policy work and provide policy-related support to other Community Resilience Initiatives (CRI) program and service delivery grantees, effectively bridging the gap between service providers and advocacy.

GRANTEES:

HOUSING

COLORADO FISCAL INSTITUTE and 9to5 COLORADO

Support for creating a learning community and leading a series of trainings for CRI housing grantees to learn how to effectively engage in policy advocacy to create sustainable funding for affordable housing and strengthen tenants' rights.

- 20 Sustaining Housing Solutions initiative grantees

MENTAL & BEHAVIORAL HEALTH
